

Personal, Social and Emotional Development:

- Keeping ourselves safe
- Using medicines safely

Communication and Language:

- New language: Archaeologists, excavate carnivore, herbivore, omnivore, Jurassic.
- What do you know about dinosaurs?
- Have you been to a museum and see dinosaur bones?
- Have you ever found a fossil?

Physical Development:

- Moving like a dinosaur
- Drawing around dinosaur stencils
- Making dinosaurs using playdough
- Making dinosaurs using clay.

Literacy

- Recount of visit from portals of the past.
- Dinosaur poetry
- Tyrannosaurus Drip by Julia Donaldson
- Dinosaurs love underpants by Claire Freedman

Our topic is:
Dinosaurs!

Understanding of the World:

- Looking at maps and finding out where we live
- Different types of dinosaurs- carnivore, herbivore and omnivore.
- Finding out why we no longer have dinosaurs.
- Making a volcano and finding out how they erupt.

Our role play area in our classroom:
Dinosaur land

Religious Education:

Who was Jesus? The Easter story.

Forest school:

- Looking at different building materials and their properties, for a variety of purposes eg. Dinosaur homes, bridges over the swamp etc.
- Using natural materials artistically

Maths:

- Measuring using standard and non-standard units of measurements.
- Odd and even numbers
- Counting songs that we know
- Dinosaur shape pictures

Expressive arts and design:

- Dinosaur clay sculptures
- Making hot cross buns
- Dinosaur skeleton pictures